2014 Annual Report

“This is the first time I have felt hopeful in a very long time.”
A new FamilyWorks participant

More families than ever found resources at the FamilyWorks Resource Center in 2014 (over 700) and more individuals (2,914) than the previous year found needed food through the FamilyWorks Food Bank and Delivery program. With the help of our amazing community of donors, partners and contributors, FamilyWorks was united in nourishing, connecting and empowering our community – making sure that people did not go hungry or without support. Please read more about how your investment is helping vulnerable people thrive and be resilient. We thank you for being part of this work!

We celebrate all of our FW staff, Board and volunteers!

We also welcomed Mike Cox to the helm, bringing with him 14 years of food bank experience at Chicken Soup Brigade.

With a grant from Employees Community Fund of Boeing Puget Sound, we were able to purchase a Nissan Cargo Van, wrapped with a beautiful illustration by Hannah Allender.

We started a Power Pack Program this year, providing backpacks of food to students in need of food over the weekends, at two local schools.

Highlights of 2014

Family Resource Center

Shirley Ferkingstad, Manager

It has been my pleasure to be part of the wonderful work of the Resource Center this year. I have watched my staff build webs of support for participants by listening, working together, and accessing resources in a thoughtful and caring way. We share the hope that in our work each of us can make a difference, rise up to challenges, and contribute. The Family Resource Center values and supports strong, healthy and self-sufficient families and individuals. With our small and dedicated staff we were able to provide this support to over 700 families with about 1,000 individuals making 22,000 visits to the resource center in 2014. Family Advocates spent time with over 300 families and 29 teen parents to help them on their path to resiliency.

“FamilyWorks is a welcoming place for families of all kinds. Sarah’s support of my family utilizing the playroom regularly has been a consistent emotional boost during a difficult period. I’m so grateful for everything FamilyWorks has done for us.”
Playgroup Participant

FamilyWorks works with many partners for the best outcome for families. Recently, our family advocate collaborated with WIC, Children’s Hospital and Seattle Public Schools to address a child’s developmental delay and the mom’s isolation, food insecurity and depression.

Family Resource Center Program Services:

- Information & referral
- Family advocacy
- Parenting classes
- Free clothing, toys and books
- Parent/Child Playgroups
- Computer Tutoring
- Employment Advice
- Bus Tickets & Socks
- Single Parent events
- Teen Parent Program
- Family and Community events

Food Bank

Mike Cox, Manager

I'm thrilled to be managing FamilyWorks Food Bank! The opportunity to employ my years of food bank experience nourishing and strengthening families and individuals, is a privilege. Despite the upswing in our nation's economy, we still see increasing numbers of families, especially our seniors, living with food scarcity. We have expanded our Power Pack program to make sure that even more children receiving free breakfast and lunch at school don't go hungry over the weekend. We are working to broaden our outreach and bring essential resources to even more of our neighbors in need. Our impact on hunger must be defined by how well we help our neighbors in need live healthfully through proper nutrition. My desire is to make healthy nutrition more available to feed both the body and spirit of our food bank participants. We will continue to be strong advocates for those who are not able to speak for themselves. And we will work to ensure that no family sits down to an empty table.

"A few months ago I lost almost 60% of my income and was trying to stay afloat paying my bills and keeping a roof over my head. Buying food was the last thing on my mind. Searching for resources at the library I found out about the FamilyWorks Food Bank. I am so thankful because without this resource I would have nothing to eat."
First time food bank participant

Food Program Services:

- The Food Bank - served 2,839 individuals in need with groceries through 25,775 visits.
- Home Delivery – We made 2,640 deliveries of nutritious grocery bags to 75 homebound seniors in the community.
- Power Pack Program – 30 weekly bags of kid-friendly food for students in need at 2 local schools.
- Over 291 tons of food was collected from Northwest Harvest, Food Lifeline, local grocery stores, food drives, individuals and groups to distribute.

Roger, recently homeless, learned about our family advocate while at the food bank. She helped him sort out his SSI and he was able to pay for an apartment. He came back to talk to the family advocate about his health insurance status and furniture resources. Roger is looking forward to inviting friends over to his new place!

Highlights of 2014

Chris Martino cooks up a Thanksgiving feast for 100 of our food bank customers at Nickerson Street Saloon.

Adobe prepares a BarBQ feast, so that participants, staff, volunteers and donors can eat together and build community.

Students from John Stanford International School collected 40 boxes of diapers and 170 jars of peanut butter!

Mandy Levenberg started Greater Good Granola, a granola business that benefits non-profits, raising over $2,000 for FW!

Thank You To Our Volunteers!

Volunteers are really the heart and soul of this organization. It is because of volunteers that we are able to do so much more and do it well. Just a few things volunteers do for us: work in the food bank, help at events like Reading Rocks and single parent potlucks, transport produce from the Farmer's Market back to the food bank, and help with data entry and mailings. It is really special to see volunteers having a good time and interacting positively with our participants. Thank you for all you do! ~ Elizabeth Ralston, Volunteer Coordinator

Anchor Church and other groups ensured that we never ran out of diapers, relieving parental stress and keeping babies healthier!

Call Electric and CP Carpenter pulled together all of their architect and contractor friends and collected a truckload, over 1500 lbs, of food!

Music Center Northwest – In its 27th year, singers at the Messiah Sing-a-Long at Phinney Lutheran Church contributed food and money for FamilyWorks.

Seattle Park's Pathway of Lights – Luminaries lit up the pathway around the lake, and FW was the recipient of the evening's food drive.

Highlights of 2014

As you've read this year's annual report we hope it has highlighted for you the amazing things our program staff and participants have accomplished together in 2014. You, the donor, have made these accomplishments possible. At FamilyWorks we understand every donation to be a transference of values by the donor. We know that when we get to hand a bag of groceries to a hungry neighbor it's because our donors believe that no one in our community should go hungry. We know that when we have the opportunity to advocate for a vulnerable family who is desperate to access resources for their children it is only because our donors believe in creating a vibrant and resilient community for everyone. We are humbled by the trust you place in us to do this work and we are honored by your generous support and continued partnership. Thank you. ~ Joey Ashenbrenner, Development Manager

A young couple who had recently moved here from out of state came into the Family Resource Center. They were about ready to give birth to twins, had no money for food and were sleeping outside. Our staff worked together to seek resources for housing, WIC, food and baby supplies. Our family advocate connected with their medical provider to arrange their babies' delivery and called the hospital the next weekend to hear that healthy babies had been born!

Thank You!
